

LYDIA'S HOUSE

A Place of Healing - A Voice of Hope

In partnership with its donors and volunteers, Lydia's House works in faith to end domestic violence by continuing to provide a place of healing and a voice of hope for abused women and their children. Since its incorporation in 1995, Lydia's House has provided transitional housing, access to community resources and comprehensive, goal-oriented support services for more than 450 abused women and their children. Lydia's House currently serves 35 women and up to 70 children. It is Missouri's largest provider of confidentially located, furnished apartments for abused women and their children and is one of the largest programs of its type in the United States.

You can help!

Visit www.lydiashouse.org for more information.

National Domestic Violence Hotline
1.800.799.SAFE (7233)
1.800.787.3224 (TTY)

One in every four women will experience domestic violence in her lifetime.

30-60% of perpetrators of intimate partner violence also abuse children in the household.

LYDIA'S HOUSE

A Place of Healing - A Voice of Hope

In partnership with its donors and volunteers, Lydia's House works in faith to end domestic violence by continuing to provide a place of healing and a voice of hope for abused women and their children. Since its incorporation in 1995, Lydia's House has provided transitional housing, access to community resources and comprehensive, goal-oriented support services for more than 450 abused women and their children. Lydia's House currently serves 35 women and up to 70 children. It is Missouri's largest provider of confidentially located, furnished apartments for abused women and their children and is one of the largest programs of its type in the United States.

You can help!

Visit www.lydiashouse.org for more information.

National Domestic Violence Hotline
1.800.799.SAFE (7233)
1.800.787.3224 (TTY)

One in every four women will experience domestic violence in her lifetime.

30-60% of perpetrators of intimate partner violence also abuse children in the household.